

South Africa will likely see a spike in acute

Malnutrition

in the next few months

It will impact how children grow physically and intellectually. In other words...

...their life potential..

Many families don't receive any assistance. ...despite grant adjustments; e.g.

↓
PREGNANT WOMEN FOR WHOM NUTRITIONAL FOOD IS CRITICAL TO SUPPORT PREGNANCY

↓
IMMIGRANTS WITHOUT DOCUMENTATION

↓
THOSE STUCK WAITING OUT GRANT ADMINISTRATION DELAYS

The need for urgent food support that doesn't involve the risks associated with food handout are well known.

Please consider donating a R200 voucher to a family in need

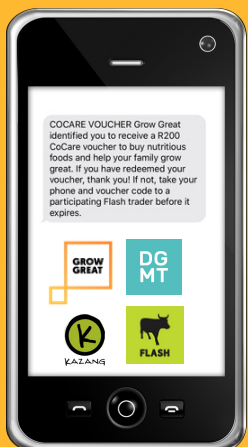

Banking details for donations:

DG Murray Trust
First National Bank
Account #: 62481961780
Reference: Food Relief and your name

For a donation via SnapScan:

Snap here to pay

Digital food vouchers sent via cell phone and redeemable at any of the 220 000 spaza shops across the country is a simple way to assist families, while stimulating the local economy at the same time.

All monies raised go directly to beneficiaries. Please keep in mind that SnapScan will take 3% excl VAT of your donation (i.e. R6 of a food voucher worth R200) as a transaction fee, to avoid this, please pay directly into the bank account number provided.