

Spend some time reflecting on these questions by yourself and then share your reflections with your colleagues.

How have you seen these hidden dimensions of poverty manifest in your work or in your community or where you live?

What can you start doing differently to support young people to better navigate the invisible effects of poverty?

How can you be an ally in championing for more holistic wraparound support for young people living in poverty?

Enjoy!
